GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Hello Brother Knights;
I want to thank all of you that took time and came to help out during the five weeks of Fish Fry Dinners. Without your help things would have not worked out so well. Because of your help most nights we were able to get out at 8:30pm!

Next up is the Blessing Breakfast and our Parish asked for our help to cook. And also coming up we were asked by Catholic Charities to help at one of their events. We will have more information for you soon with the dates and times.

On May 25, 2023 we are hosting the Father Giles Assembly 4th Degree meeting. We are thinking about serving ribs again so save the date. If you are not a 4th Degree Sir Knight (why not) you can come to enjoy the dinner at a cost of $15 and bring guests if you would like. After the dinner however only Sir Knights are allowed for the meeting. Invitation will be emailed with more accurate information.

Also, the time for new Officers Elections is coming up in June 2023 and in July the new Officers should be installed for Columbian Year 2023-2024. If you know of someone that will be a great asset get ready to nominate him, or if you are ready to step up let me know.

Finally Brothers I look forward to great weather and more events where we can come together and collaborate.

Once again Brothers and Family, thank you for all your help. God bless you and your family.

Grand Knight

COUNCIL #10644 JOKES

1. What did April Fools' Day say after it won an award? Prank you.
2. Who needs April Fools' when your whole life is a joke? April fools.
3. Who needs a day for the fools? I'm surrounded by them all year.
4. I don't always joke on April Fools' Day. Just kidding, I do.
5. Before your significant other goes to sleep, replace their pillow with a bunch of balloons. The key here is to make sure the balloons are positioned properly to throw them off (you can use tape to keep them together). Then, when they go to lay down, their "pillow" will be moving all over the place.
6. Before they wake up in the morning, change all the calendars in the house, plus their phone if you can get to it, to make them believe it's a totally different day. And this year, April 1 is on a Saturday, so you can get the kids up early and tell them it's time for school.
7. Empty multiple drawers, and then leave the house or pick a good hiding space. They'll be left wondering where all of their clothes, underwear or utensils went, and you won't be around for them to ask. You can also switch up drawers to get them even more confused.
8. This prank will levae ouy ??? what my writing saying is. Time 2 waste ury. reading wanted konw what. rankp to hay APRIL FOOLS!!!
9. Slip a sign reading "honk and smile" inside the car of your prank target; make sure it's hidden and out of their view (and not blocking their views at all). All commute long, they'll wonder why they're getting beeped at nonstop by drivers who seem more flirty than inconvenienced.
10. Yes, the classic baby shower game of melted chocolate inside a diaper works great as a timeless April Fools' Prank, too. If you have a baby in the home, smear a diaper with chocolate candy or peanut butter; then call in a spouse or child to observe with horror as you taste the mess.
11. This prank takes the "control" out of remote control: Use a teeny sticker or tape to cover over the sensor on the clicker. No matter how hard they try, they won't be able to make those TV channels budge ... even with new batteries.

APRIL'S LECTURER REPORT

Greetings Brother Knights;

April is here the month of the Holy Eucharist. It is also the month of the Resurrection of our Lord. As Catholics, we all know that the greatest things in life come in threes. The month of April is no different as it is also the month dedicated to the Holy Spirit (third person of the Trinity). We really have a lot to celebrate this April. The month starts out strong with the first Sunday being Palm Sunday followed of course by Holy Week. Then the greatest Solemnity on our Church calendar and the greatest day for hope for us today and for all who have ever lived and for all time.

THE RESURRECTION OF OUR LORD

The promise of hope and a chance for everlasting life for everyone of us. This opportunity is an undeserved gift that Jesus has given us. The church expresses that sentiment on the Sunday that follows Easter as well as Divine Mercy Sunday.

Let us approach these three great celebrations on the Church Calendar with child like wonder and amazement. Let us cry out Hosannas on Palm Sunday as we welcome the King. We quiet our hearts knowing though that it is Palm Sunday of The Passion of The Lord and that dark, quiet and solemn days of The Triduum are to come. We all know that our darkest three days (the days when our Lord was in the tomb) are followed by our greatest day of light when we celebrate on Easter his return. Joy returns to the world as we sing Alleluia! Alleluia! He is Risen indeed. A spring of Hope Eternal for all the faithful. Even the undeserving (all of us).

The following Sunday we are all reminded of how merciful Jesus is. The Church has called for the Sunday following Easter to be Devine Mercy Sunday. (We can all use as much of His Mercy as we can get, I know I need it).

We can all ask for help, the help that Jesus Himself said He would send us. The Helper, The Paraclete The Third Person of the Trinity. We should all call on Him by His Name with the following prayer.
